DO NOT BE HEEDLESS

*Assalamu Alaykum
Auzu Billahi Minashaytanir Rajeem
Bismillahir Rahmanir Raheem*

*Madad Ya Rasulallah, Madad Ya Ashab-e Rasulallah, Madad Ya Mashayikhina, Sheykh Abdullah Daghestani, Sheykh Nazim al-Haqqani. Dastur.
Tariqatunas sohba, wal khayru fil jamiyya.*

Do not be heedless in this world. What does heedless mean? It means to forget Allah. Do not act unwarily. If you are unwary, your foot might suddenly slip and you might find yourself in a disastrous situation. Be careful. Shaytan sets a trap in everything. Saying, "I am a scholar, I am a hoja, or I am a haji," does not help. People loose immediately when they become arrogant.

There are Hadith Sharifs on this subject. People do the best of worship, namaz (sala), fasting and all, but it has no use says our Holy Prophet. Why? Because they are doing it for their nafs (ego), not for Allah. If you say, "I am doing this worship and do not need anything else," Allah does not accept that thing. There is a remark "Muslim for himself" that we generally say. So the Muslim needs to do everything for Allah, not for show. He must also do them for the benefit of people. You should not be happy with your own works and the things you do. Heedlessness is to think highly of yourself, to forget Allah, and to think it is from yourself. This is the biggest heedlessness.

A person needs to do everything like a normal Muslim. A person will get rewarded in Allah's station when doing what Allah orders, even if little, and if he thinks, "This is from Allah and I am doing it for Allah." Allah is aware of it. Allah Azza wa Jalla gives at least ten times the reward. There are also rewards that He knows the account for. Allah is generous. He gives at least ten times the reward. It also increases as much as nobody but He knows. Allah is such an owner of beneficence. Even if you do a little, when you do it purely and entirely for Allah, you will reach more stations and be more profitable than a person who commits his whole life for worship and only thinks of himself. Do not be heedless of Allah. May Allah help us. We do not have hold of anything. We ask for everything from Allah. May Allah help us to stay in the right path and to do good works Inshallah. As we said, let us not fall into heedlessness Inshallah.

Wa Minallah at-Tawfeeq. Al-Fatiha.
