RECITING SALAWAT IS BENEFICIAL

*Assalamu Alaykum wa Rahmatullah wa Barakatuh,
Auzu Billahi Minashaytanir Rajeem. Bismillahir Rahmanir Raheem,

Allah Azza wa Jalla commands us to make salat and salam on our Holy Prophet (SAW) and to love our Holy Prophet (SAW). It is fard (obligatory). When it is fard and you do it, you gain rewards and gain benefits. Reciting salat and salam on our Holy Prophet (SAW) brings baraka (blessings) on a person. For prayers to be answered, we recite salat and salam in the beginning before making dua, and we recite salat and salam after the dua. So Allah (JJ) certainly answers the dua when it is in between two salat and salams.

Reciting salat and salam on our Holy Prophet (SAW) is the light of our eyes and the beauty of a person. Reciting salawat is beneficial for people. Some people say they are forgetful. So recite a salat and salam, salawat, when you forget and you will immediately remember what you forgot. Some people cannot stand this. They are with Shaitan. Those who do not love the Prophet (SAW) are shaitans. Those who do not respect him and do not recite salawat are also amongst them. They do not recite it themselves and cannot bare others reciting salawat, salat and salam, either.

It is a benefit, blessing, and light for us. Reciting salawat is everything that is beautiful. Loving our Holy Prophet (SAW) and especially loving his companions (sahaba) is a great reward, benediction (nima), and benefit. May Allah increase his love in all of us Inshallah. Our respect is little so may He increase it more. Because the more you respect and love our Holy Prophet (SAW) the more Allah will love you. Our Holy Prophet (SAW) is His beloved. Allah Exalted and Glorious be He also loves those who love him. May Allah make us amongst those who love him.

Wa Minallah at-Tawfeeq. Al-Fatiha.
