RUN TO ALLAH

As-Salāmu 'alaykum wa raḥmatu Llāhi. A'ūdhu biLlāhi mina sh-shayṭāni r-rajīm.

Waṣ-ṣalātu wa s-Salāmu 'alā Rasūlinā Muḥammadin Sayyidi l-awwalīn wa l-ākhirīn.

Madad yā Rasūla Llāh, madad yā Sādāti Aṣḥābi Rasūli Llāh, madad yā Mashāyikhinā, dastūr yā Shaykh 'Abdu Llāh al-Fā'iz ad-Dāghistānī, Shaykh Muḥammad Nāzim al Ḥaqqānī. Madad.

Ṭarīqatunā ṣ-ṣuḥbah wa l-khayru fi l-jam'iyyah.

For being on this path, because Allah put us on it, we should be really grateful. We should give thanks! Because we live in the End Days, people do not know what to do, to which direction to turn, [and] always there is suffering. Every country thinks it is the only one that suffers. They run around thinking that in another country they will be comfortable. Allah 'azza wa jalla has shown the path already:

فَفِرُّوا إِلَى اللَّهِ

"Fafirrā ilā 'Llāh," it says, (Qur'ān 51:50). "So run to Allah," there is neither need of drawing in water nor of being disgraced. If you turn towards Allah wherever you are, Allah will help you, [and] there will be no suffering. However, if you have hope in other people and places, [well, the other person] he too is like you, a person, [and] cannot help, except to cause suffering. Even if they promise, they do not keep it. You run to them, even though they do not promise. You bow down to them, become their slaves, then you do every kind of thing in order to be liked by them.

A man likes not another, but himself—he is submitted to his ego. So run to Allah; be with those who with Allah! Otherwise, your actions are worthless. This is what to do, but people cover their ears. They do what they desire and what their egos desire. They run to them, [yet] what they run to comes to naught. Let alone coming to naught, the end result is often bad! May Allah protect us! May Allah have us reach Him, insha'Allah.
