Ṭarīqatunā ṣ-ṣuḥbah wa l-khayru fi l-jam'iyyah.

In the midst of this alarm, I suppose people will not forget how to spend this night. This is the Night of Mi'raj, a blessed night. One of the most precious nights. It is very blessed. Insha'Allah, we will revive the night and pray. It is a night when prayers are accepted. Allah granted this night to the Holy Prophet as a gift, because the Holy Prophet (SAW) was quite upset. They were being oppressed in Macca and Taif. Allah raised him to a station which no other could reach. He talked to the Holy Prophet (SAW). This is a part of Allah's knowledge how He spoke to him, in the highest stations as He says. Allah is not limited, of course, within time and space, so how this happened is in His knowledge, and no other creature has ever reached this station ever. Allah has a very large creation, yet amongst all, only the Holy Prophet attained this station, and his umma has received this gift, its blessings and virtues. This night includes this blessing. Those who enliven this night will be enlivened by it [in return]. One should go to sleep and then later at night wake up for the tahajjud prayer so as to attain [the full] virtues of this night.

Insha'Allah, prayers are going to be accepted. For the sake of all the prayers made tonight, insha'Allah no harms shall come to the people of Muhammad (SAW). It will pass, insha'Allah, because [although] they say, "With this technology, we did such things etc...", [such speaking] really has no use. Allah's grace and mercy is needed so that this calamity will be removed from upon the people. May it be upon those who are still stubborn not to accept Islam. Because despite all these happenings, just like Pharaoh they are still in denial. Insha'Allah, by the grace and mercy of Allah nothing will happen to those who believe. They will remain protected, insha'Allah. May Allah be our helper.

What is to be done tonight is to perform kaza [previously missed fard] prayers, the tasbeeh prayer, and two rakats for the Miraj. In the Miraj prayer, [one should read] Surat ul-Ikhlās twenty times in each rakat. Insha'Allah, it will be barakah, khayr. It will cause
