HIDDEN AMONG US

As-Salāmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatu Llāh.

Madad yā Rasūla Llāh, madad yā Sādāti Aṣḥābi Rasūli Llāh, madad yā Mashāyikhinā, dastūr yā Shaykh ‘Abdu Llāh al-F ‘āiz ad-Dāghistānī, Shaykh Muḥammad Nāẓim al-

Friends of Allah always exist, however during our time they keep out of sight. This is because it is the End Times, and there is so much corruption. They are here, but hidden. Allah always sends them. Sometimes they are seen; sometimes they hide. In the past, they were clearly recognizable. In these times, though, false ones claim it. Already when one claims, it is through ego. He possesses an egoic self. Awliya’ do not have I’ness.

Once a foreigner of high rank came to Mawlana (QS). They talked, had a conversation. The man was not a Muslim. They sat for about two hours. And then the visitor said, “This man is a real wali, a perfected man, as he did not say “I”. Others say, “I am such and such...” This type of people does not possess anything like it. They are vain. One who possesses does not need to say “I”.

So the friends of Allah are hidden amongst us. Look for them in hidden places. Be on the look out for them, and benefit from their prayers. The effect of their glance at you—even that is sufficient for you. During these End Days, these days of so much corruption, these days that the Holy Prophet (SAW) spoke about, to meet the awliya’, to respect them, brings you happiness and peace, and it becomes a means of salvation from calamities. Allah will help you for their sake. The Holy Prophet (SAW) said, “تَرْزَقُونَ، بهم” “Bihim turzaqūn, bihim tunṣarūn.” “You are provided with ni’mat for their sake, provided with victory and every possible good.” May their help be upon us. May love for them be in our hearts. May Allah strengthen our faith, insha’Allah.
